

Stella-Meta
ENGINEERED SOLUTIONS
A Rolvey Group Company

The De-tasting Module

The De-tasting module has been introduced to remove excess residual chlorine typically supplied from storage tanks. This module can be used with all existing types of equipment. With the design of modular integration this can be used with the ST1, small groups or any other equipment you choose to aid in palatability of the water.

De-tasting
Module

Water Purification
unit

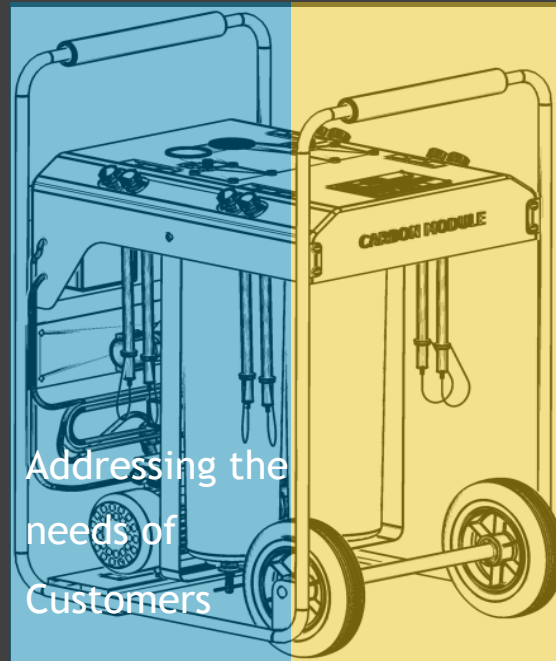

Mobile Water Filtration

PRODUCT IN SERVICE SINCE 2010

Carbon Unit - Giving new life to taste

The equipment is supplied with all necessary hoses to operate and is able to treat source freshwater from any river, pond, lake, or canal.

- Suitable for use with the ST1, and any other equipment not fitted with Carbon Filtration
- Can be used as an independent item of equipment
- 110v operating voltage
- 1.98m cubed per hour filtration

WHAT WE DO We pride ourselves in the ability to provide a complete and friendly service to the customer

Filtration

Military

Industrial

Logistics

Support

Design

Manufacture

Training

Testing

- Light weight for remote areas applications
- Easy to operate requiring a minimal level of training
- Built in dry running protection
- Over pressure cut out
- Low maintenance construction
- Can be used with either the submersible pump or the onboard pump provided
- Durable construction for all environments

Contact us.

Tel: +44 (0)23 8027 9969

Fax: +44 (0)23 8027 0549

Email: info@stella-meta.com

www.stella-meta.com

UK Address:

Brickfield lane
Chandlers Ford
Eastleigh
Hampshire
SO53 4DP
ENGLAND